Rabbi Dr. Dovid Katz is a native Baltimorean who earned his semicha at Ner Israel Rabbinical College and advanced degrees from Johns Hopkins and the University of Maryland. He is a noted lecturer on Jewish history, which he teaches at both Johns Hopkins University and University of Maryland. Rabbi Katz is the Rabbi of Congregation Beth Abraham of Baltimore, Maryland, and a Visiting Professor of History at The Johns Hopkins University (Dept. of Near-Eastern Studies). A former Contributing Editor to the Art Scroll Schottenstein Edition of the Babylonian Talmud (Perek Chelek) and a popular speaker, Rabbi Katz lectures widely on Jewish History and Rabbinic Literature. His annual winter and summer Jewish History lecture series in Baltimore draws hundreds of people from the Baltimore Jewish Community.
